

a) Undertake planning study on the implications of introducing transit lanes or other forms of public transport priority along South Street, (from Ranford Road to Murdoch University, including at intersections).

n communities and also provide good access to the future station)